

Jed Johnson

Managing Director of Aging Services at CARF International

Washington, DC, US

Jed Johnson is an award-winning, national leader in adult- and senior-services arenas.

Biography

Jed Johnson supervises operations and staff for CARF International's Aging Services accreditation area. He provides leadership for developing standards and improvements in accreditation processes. Jed joined CARF in October 2018 after 18 years at Easterseals, where he served as vice president of national programs. Johnson's primary expertise lies in caregiving (with a prior focus on rural and/or military/veteran caregiving populations), transportation/mobility and aging, respite care, and adult day services.

Industry Expertise

Training and Development, Health and Wellness, Public Policy

Areas of Expertise

Senior Transportation, Rural caregiving, Military or veteran caregiving, Adult Day Services, Continuing Care Retirement Communities, Care for Older Adults, Respite Care, Elderly mobility needs, Aging with a disability

Affiliations

Elizabeth Dole Foundation, PsychArmor Institute - Caregiver & Families Advisory Committee, Lifespan Respite Technical Assistance Center - ARCH Advisory Committee

Education

University of Pennsylvania - The Wharton School
MBA Public Management

University of Pennsylvania - School of Social Work
MSW Health Care, Aging

Oberlin College
BA Government, Urban Studies

Accomplishments

2012 Gloria Cavanaugh Award for Excellence in Training and Education

The American Society of Aging presents the Gloria Cavanaugh Award for Excellence in Training and Education to an individual or organization that has demonstrated continued excellence in training and education in the field of aging. Easter Seals received the award in 2012 for services, education and training projects that Johnson led.

2009 Robert E. Bradford Leadership Award

Awarded annually by Easter Seals, the Robert E. Bradford Leadership Award recognizes the leadership skills of a headquarters staff member who has demonstrated a strong commitment to Easter Seals and the potential for growth.

2006 Ruth Von Behren Award

Awarded by the National Adult Day Services Association (NADSA), the Ruth Von Behren Award recognizes the personal achievements and commitment of individuals in the field of Adult Day Services who have had a national impact on Adult Day Services. It is given to an outstanding volunteer or employee of an organization that directly supports adult day services nationally.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.