Richard L. Gilbert

Professor Emeritus of Psychology | Psychological Science at Loyola Marymount University

Los Angeles, CA, US

Bellarmine College of Liberal Arts

Biography

Richard Gilbert is Professor of Psychology at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles, California; Director of The P.R.O.S.E. (Psychological Research on Synthetic Environments) Project, a research lab that investigates the personal and cultural impact of leading edge digital technologies such as Virtual Reality and Artificial Intelligence, and Chair of the Board of Governors of the Western United States Region of the Immersive Education Initiative, a global organization of researchers, educators. and members of the technology industry interested in educational applications of 3D or ?immersive? digital technologies. He is the author of over 50 professional papers and presentations in the area of Psychology and Technology. Dr. Gilbert received his B.A. in Psychology from Princeton University and his PhD from the Clinical Psychology Program at UCLA with a minor in Developmental Psychology. In addition to his work in Psychology, he has a background in the creative arts as a Grammy Award winning songwriter and a published novelist.

Areas of Expertise

Psychology and New Digital Technologies, Cyberpsychology, Virtual Reality, Lifespan Human Development

---

Affiliations

Chair - Board of Governors - Western United States Region of the Immersive Education Initiative, Founder - Los Angeles Future of Humanity Discussion Group

---

Education

University of California at Los Angeles
Ph.D. Psychology

Princeton University
B.A. Psychology

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.