

Aaron Mendelsohn

Senior Lecturer of Screenwriting at Loyola Marymount University

Los Angeles, CA, US

Lecturer, Professional Freelance Write, and Content Consultant

Biography

Aaron Mendelsohn has been a working screenwriter for over twenty years. He is best known for co-creating and co-writing the successful AIR BUD family film franchise, which went on to sire eleven sequels. Aaron has written screenplays and teleplays for Warner Brothers, 20th Century Fox, Sony, New Line, Paramount, New Regency, Showtime, Fox Network, Lifetime, ABC Family, Disney Channel, Cartoon Network, Lightstorm, Hasbro Studios, Imagi and Studio Hamburg. He also wrote and directed the independent feature CHAPTER ZERO. Currently, Aaron is developing the drama series BAD MEDICINE for the Spike Network. In 2015, Aaron was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the Writers Guild of America West. Prior to that he served five terms on the WGAW Board of Directors.

Industry Expertise

Entertainment, Writing and Editing, Media - Print, Education/Learning, Program Development

Areas of Expertise

Film & Television Development, Ancillary Markets & Content Migration , Public Relations & Promotion , Social Media Strategies , Marketing Strategies, Monetization Strategies , Distribution Strategies , Production Management, Writer Procurement , Scriptwriting

Affiliations

Criterion Collection, Writers Guild of America West, Virtual Artists

Education

University of California, Los Angeles

B.A. Screenwriting and the Cinematic Experience

Accomplishments

Chief Creative Officer

Chief Creative Officer of Virtual Artists, a digital studio bringing first run, ad-supported content written by professional writers to the Web and beyond.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.