

Amira Elghawaby

Communications Director at The National Council of Canadian Muslims

Ottawa, ON, CA

Amira Elghawaby leads the NCCM's media relations, public engagement and strategic communications.

Biography

Amira Elghawaby obtained an honours degree in Journalism and Law from Carleton University in 2001. Since then, she has worked as both a full-time and freelance journalist, writing and producing stories for a variety of media including CBC Radio, the Ottawa Citizen, the Toronto Star and The Globe and Mail. In 2012, she joined NCCM as Human Rights Coordinator to advocate for the human rights & civil liberties of diverse communities. In 2015, Amira became NCCM's Communications Director in which she leads the NCCM's media relations, public engagement and strategic communications.

Industry Expertise

Media - Broadcast, Media - Print, Philanthropy, Political Organization, Public Policy, Women, Writing and Editing

Areas of Expertise

Ethnic Media & Diversity , Anti-discrimination, Civic Engagement , Human Rights, Civil Rights, Muslims in Canada

Affiliations

The Toronto Star, Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, New Canadian Media, Rabble, Muslim Link

Event Appearances

Crime Prevention Ottawa: Speaker Series

?Addressing Hate Crimes: Creating A Safe City for All.?

Education

Carleton University

B.A. Journalism, Law

Accomplishments

Marisa Ann Golini Award for Investigative Journalism
1999 Awarded by Carleton University

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.