

Amy Adler

Professor and Department Chair at UC San Diego

San Diego, CA, US

The UC San Diego Department of Visual Arts chair, Amy Adler's artistic practice focuses on painting, film and photography.

---

Biography

The current UC San Diego Department of Visual Arts chair, Amy Adler was born and raised in New York City. They graduated from Cooper Union in 1989 with a B.F.A. in painting, and went on to complete an M.F.A. from the University of California Los Angeles in 1995 with a concentration in painting and photography. In 2011, Adler received a second M.F.A. in cinematic arts from the University of Southern California. Adler has an exhibition history that includes solo shows at the museum of Contemporary Art Los Angeles, the Aspen Art Museum, The UCLA Hammer Museum and the Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego. In the spring of 2005 Twin Palms Press released a monograph of Adler's work titled "Young Photographer." Other monographs include solo catalogues produced by the Museum of Contemporary Art Los Angeles and the Aspen Art Museum. Adler's work has been reviewed extensively with multiple featured articles in The New York Times, LA Times, The New Yorker, Art in American and Artforum as well as many other publications. Their work is included in several permanent collections including the Deste Foundation Athens; The Broad Foundation, Los Angeles; The Los Angeles County Museum of Art; The UCLA Hammer Museum; and the Museum of Contemporary Art Los Angeles. Adler has been teaching at UC San Diego since 2004.

---

Areas of Expertise

Visual Arts Education, Painting, Photography, Visual Arts

---

Education

University of Southern California

M.F.A. Cinematic Arts

UCLA

M.F.A.

The Cooper Union

B.F.A. Painting

---

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.