

Amy Coupal

CEO at Learnography | Curriculum Services Canada

Toronto, ON, CA

Not-for-profit leader, passionate educator, life long learner

Amy joined CSC in 2006 as the Director of Professional Learning Services. She became the Executive Director of CSC and its charitable affiliate in 2009. Amy began her teaching career at the Toronto District School Board and also taught with the Osaka school board in Japan. Amy came to CSC from the Learning Disabilities Association of Ontario (LDAO), where she oversaw the development of multiple teacher-training programs (both online and face-to-face) while simultaneously completing her Masters of Education in Workplace and Adult Learning. Amy applies her broad education background to her role as Executive Director and ensures that CSC's high standards are upheld in all its service areas.
