

Antino Kim

Assistant Professor of Decision and Information Technologies at Indiana University, Kelley School of Business

Bloomington, IN, US

Antino Kim is an expert in digital piracy, fake news, social media and the supply chain of information goods.

Biography

Antino Kim is an assistant professor of Information Systems and Grant Thornton Scholar at the Kelley School of Business, Indiana University. He earned his Ph.D. in Information Systems from the Foster School of Business at the University of Washington. His research interests include: misinformation and social media; digital piracy and policy implications; supply chain of information goods; AI and human interaction; and IT and worker displacement. His recent papers appear in Information Systems Research, Journal of Management Information Systems, Management Science, MIS Quarterly, among other outlets.

Industry Expertise

Social Media, Education/Learning

Areas of Expertise

Cloud Computing, IT and Worker Displacement, Social Media, Fake News, Digital Piracy, Supply Chain of Information Goods, AI And Human Interaction, Information Security

Education

University of Washington

Ph.D. Information Systems

University of Washington

M.S. Information Systems

University of Michigan

M.S. Computer Science & Engineering

Accomplishments

Best Paper Award, Hawaii International Conference System Sciences (HICSS)

2018

Runner Up, Best Conference Paper, Workshop on Information Systems and Economics (WISE) 2015

Best Conference Student Paper, Conference on Information Systems and Technology (CIST) 2015

MSIS Faculty Recognition Award, Foster School of Business, University of Washington 2015

Bertauche Dissertation Fellowship, Foster School of Business, University of Washington 2015

PhD Program Teaching Award, Foster School of Business, University of Washington 2014

Wayne & Anne Gittinger Ph.D. Fellow, Foster School of Business, University of Washington 2010

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.