

Catherine Price

Associate Professor at University of Florida

Gainesville, FL, US

Catherine Price studies the neuropsychology of older adults with and without dementia and neuroanatomical changes.

Biography

Catherine Price's career has been devoted to studying the neuropsychology of older adults with and without dementia and neuroanatomical changes and their effects on older adults' cognitive functioning and cognitive change. She assesses individuals who are concerned about memory, problem-solving or thinking changes, cognitive decline, dementia and cognitive complications following various medical procedures.

Areas of Expertise

Parkinson's, Dementia, Brain Imaging, Neuroscience and the Brain, Cognitive Ageing, Movement Disorders, Neurodegenerative Diseases

Affiliations

International Neuropsychological Society : Member, American Psychological Association (APA) : Member, American Board of Professional Psychology : Member, American Society of Anesthesiology (ASA) Brain Health Initiative : Member

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.