

Denise Schentrup

Clinical Associate Professor/Associate Dean at University of Florida

Gainesville, FL, US

Denise Schentrup serves as clinical director of Archer Family Health Care, the UF College of Nursing's nurse-led clinic.

Biography

Denise Schentrup serves as clinical director and lead nurse practitioner of Archer Family Health Care, the UF College of Nursing's nurse-led clinic. She maintains a clinical practice as a family nurse practitioner and provides quality, affordable care to individuals and families of the small, rural town of Archer, Florida, and surrounding rural areas. She also serves as the College of Nursing's associate dean for clinical affairs, providing oversight to faculty practice initiatives, teaching in the clinical setting as a preceptor for adult and family nurse practitioner students and leading Doctor of Nursing Practice students in their capstone projects. Denise is a fellow in the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners and a board member of the National Association of Rural Health Clinics.

Areas of Expertise

Interprofessional Team-based Care, Quality Improvement, Rural Health, Health Information Exchange

Affiliations

AllianceChicago : National consortium member, Gainesville community's Safety Net Collaborative : Member, Rural Health Partnership Board of Directors : Vice President

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.