Barry Primus

Senior Lecturer of Production at Loyola Marymount University

Los Angeles, CA, US

Barry Primus is an actor, writer, playwright and director

Biography

Barry Primus is an actor, writer, playwright and director. His plays include Oh Dad Poor Dad by Arthur Miller, Creation of the World, After the Fall, Incident at Vichy, The Changling, Isaac Singer?s Tiebele and Her Demon, Henry IV Part I, Part II, The Criminals, and he recently finished a run of Good Bobby. He has worked in regional theaters including Arena Stage, Yale Repertory, Theatre Company of Boston and Shakespeare and Company. Barry staged his own play Wonder Comes the Seventh Day that received the Jean Dalrymple Award in New York. Barry has been featured in more than 50 movies. He has worked with the likes of Martin Scorcese and Sydney Pollack, and appeared in such films as New York ? New York, The Rose, Down and Out in Beverly Hills and soon to be released JF Lawton?s Jackson (Best Actor Southern California Film Festival) just to name a few. Barry also co-wrote and directed Mistress starring Robert De Niro. His work in television includes Law and Order, The X-Files, The Practice, Picket Fences, Boston Legal, and he was a series regular on Cagney and Lacey. In a teaching career spanning over 20 years Barry has taught acting and directing internationally in Moscow, Kiev as well as such prominent schools as UCLA, LMU, Lee Strasberg Theatre Institute, Maine Media Workshops and AFI.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning, Motion Pictures and Film

Areas of Expertise

Directing for TV and Film, Directing for Theater, Directing and Working with Actors, Teaching Acting

---

Affiliations

UCLA School of Theater Film and Television : Lecturer

Education

Bennington College

Degree

Accomplishments

American Hustle
Narrative Film. Actor. 2013.

Grudge Match
Narrative Film. Actor. 2013.

Jackson
Narrative Film. Actor. 2008.

Mistress
Narrative Film. Director. 1992.

Please click here to view the full profile.