

Brenda Lee

Ph.D., C.Psych.(Cand.), Counsellor at University of Manitoba

Winnipeg, MB, CA

Relationship and sex researcher (monogamy, infidelity, breakups, relationship maintenance, cyber/stalking); clinical therapist.

Biography

I am a clinical associate, and a clinical psychologist candidate in Manitoba. My research topics have addressed intimate relationship maintenance and breakup, human sexuality, and gender dynamics. Clinically, I primarily work with adults, adolescents, and children with mood, anxiety, adjustment, traumatic, developmental, and learning disorders.

Industry Expertise

Mental Health Care, Research

Areas of Expertise

Clinical and Health Psychology, Human Sexuality, Intimate Relationships, Intimate Partner Violence, Psychology, Research, Research Analysis, Abnormal Psychology, Developmental Psychology, Sexuality, Romantic Relationships, Gender, Learning and Attention Disorders, Developmental and learning disorders, Stalking, Moral Psychology, Psychological Assessment

Affiliations

Canadian Psychological Association, Canadian Sex Research Forum , Psychological Association of Manitoba, Manitoba Psychological Society

Education

University of New Brunswick

Ph.D. Clinical Psychology

Accomplishments

Snodgrass Graduate Research Proposal Award

Recipients of this award is chosen by an adjudicating committee struck by the Chair of the Department of Psychology. The award was made based on the scholarly merit of your research, which was judged on the basis of the following criteria: innovation, rigour, and potential to make a contribution to the discipline, as well as on your competence in presenting the study in the proposal.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.