Villanova, PA, US

Brett Grainger, ThD, researches the changing face of modern spirituality in America and how various religions view the natural world.

Biography

Dr. Grainger is a go-to source to discuss the role and changing face of modern spirituality in America. He can talk about today's religious trends including the state of main line religions, alternative religions, the religious right and politics, religious fundamentalism, religious violence and culture wars. He can also place today's religious landscape in a broader historical context. Dr. Grainger's research focuses on religion and nature ? how various religions view the natural world as a place to commune with God.
