

Brian Sisselman

Lecturer of Film and Television Production at Loyola Marymount University

Los Angeles, CA, US

School of Film and Television

Biography

Brian Sisselman holds an MFA in Motion Picture and Television production from UCLA. He is an award-winning Producer, Director, Cameraman working for over 25 years on all 7 continents. He has shot, produced and directed more than 100 network television programs, and over 15 adventure feature films for worldwide audiences. Programming includes documentary, culture, sports action, motor sports, travelogue, and children's. He has been a VP of Programming for a cable network with over 100 affiliates. International awards include: EMMY, Cine Golden Eagles, Tellys, Best of Festivals. Brian candidly shares with students tools they need to enter and navigate a career in the media world including having them complete their own personal productions. His hands-on experiences and anecdotes have always proved to be invaluable. Brian's filming in sometimes hostile and extreme locations has often forced him to teach "never-evens" in the field to be production crew members ready and skilled to accomplish his production goals. Brian's personality has been observed by students and colleagues as energetic, informative, inspirational, and never dull.

Areas of Expertise

Cinematography, Producing & Directing Independent Film and TV, Documentary Production

Education

UCLA, Theater Arts Dept.

MFA Motion Picture / Television

University of Vermont

BA Undergraduate Studies

Accomplishments

Film Awards:

EMMY, CINE Golden Eagles, TELLYS, Best of Festivals

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.