

Brianne Gilbert

Managing Director, StudyLA; Senior Lecturer, Political Science; Senior Lecturer, Urban & Environmental Studies at Loyola Marymount University

Los Angeles, CA, US

Center for the Study of Los Angeles

Biography

Brianne Gilbert is the managing director for the Center for the Study of Los Angeles (StudyLA). In her role, she leads StudyLA's research on understanding the attitudes and opinions of LA's residents, voters, and leaders. She is a principal investigator on many of the region's largest survey research projects, notably the annual Los Angeles Public Opinion Survey of LA residents and the LA Votes Election Study of LA voters. She also is a senior lecturer at LMU in the departments of political science and urban and environmental studies, teaching courses on political internships, GIS, and geospatial research. Brianne also has served as a consultant in the fields of sociology, anthropology, GIS (geographic information systems), methodology, and public opinion research.

Industry Expertise

Think Tanks, Education/Learning, Research, Public Policy

Areas of Expertise

Los Angeles, Social Science Research, Public Opinion Research, Survey Methodology, Geospatial Data Mapping, Geographic Information Systems (GIS)

Affiliations

AASRO (Association of Academic Survey Research Organizations), AAPOR (American Association of Public Opinion Research), Women in GIS, PAPOR (Pacific Association of Public Opinion Research)

Education

Wittenberg University

B.A. Sociology

Florida International University

M.A. Sociology

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.