

Brooke Ingersoll

Associate Professor of Psychology at Michigan State University

East Lansing, MI, US

Brooke Ingersoll is an expert on the development, evaluation and dissemination of social communication interventions for people with autism.

Biography

Dr. Ingersoll's research focuses on the development, evaluation, and dissemination of social communication interventions for individuals with autism. She also conducts research on the impact of ASD on the family and the broader autism phenotype. A major emphasis of her current work is on the development of community-focused, parent-mediated interventions for young children with ASD.

Areas of Expertise

Austism Spectrum Disorders (Asd), Autism

Education

University of California

Ph.D. Psychology

University of California

M.A. Psychology

University of Michigan

B.A. Psychology & French

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.