Vancouver, BC, CA

Writer and award-winning public philosopher.

Biography

I'm a writer and philosopher based in Vancouver, BC. I currently hold a Canada Research Chair in Philosophy at the University of British Columbia. I studied at Trinity College, Cambridge, and have also held academic posts at the University of St Andrews, the Australian National University, the University of Michigan, the University of Nottingham, and the University of Aberdeen. At UBC I head up a SSHRC-funded project on The Nature of Romantic Love. My new book, What Love Is And What It Could Be, is out now with Basic Books (NY).
