

Catherine Connelly

Associate Professor, Human Resources and Management at DeGroote School of Business, McMaster University

Hamilton, ON, CA

Dr. Catherine Connelly's research focuses on the attitudes, behaviours, and experiences of non-standard workers.

Biography

Dr. Catherine Connelly holds a Canada Research Chair in Organizational Behaviour, and is a member of the College of New Scholars of the Royal Society of Canada (RSC). Her research focuses on the attitudes, behaviours, and experiences of non-standard workers. She is an associate editor of Human Relations. Catherine also conducts applied research with several Canadian organizations in both the private and non-profit sector. In addition to her research success, Catherine is a past winner and frequent teaching award nominee for her teaching in the MBA program. She has made presentations about her research to industry and academic groups across Canada and the US, and in Sweden, Norway, the Netherlands, Slovenia, Germany, and Portugal. Her research has been featured in the New York Times, the Globe and Mail, the National Post, and on CTV and CBC radio and TV.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning, Research

Areas of Expertise

Non-Standard Employee Contracts, Organizational Behaviour, Organizational Health and Safety Management, Organizational Justice, Organizational Citizenship, Temporary Foreign Workers, Temporary Agency Workers, Independent Contractors, Use of Technology in the Workplace, Leadership, Well-being of middle managers, knowledge hiding in organizations

Education

Queen's University

Ph.D. Management

Queen's University

M.Sc. Management

McMaster University

B.Comm. Commerce

Accomplishments

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.