

Chester Spatt

Professor at Carnegie Mellon University

Pittsburgh, PA, US

Chester Spatt has been a leader in financial economics for more than four decades.

---

Biography

A pioneer in financial regulation research, Chester Spatt has been a leader in financial economics for more than four decades. His research has spanned across most of the financial economics discipline to include securities and financial regulations (SEC and Fed), equity and fixed-income market design and trading, mortgages and real estate, taxes and investing, and inflation. He is a research associate of the National Bureau of Economic Research and he previously served as chief economist for the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

---

Industry Expertise

Financial Services

---

Areas of Expertise

Banking, Finance and Investment, Finance, Economic Theory, Applied Economics, Econometrics

---

Education

University of Pennsylvania

Ph.D. Economics

University of Pennsylvania

M.A. Economics

Princeton University

B.A. Economics

---

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.