Biography

I have a lot of experience in the management, training and development of people from all around the world. I'm skilled in copy & Advertising. I've been working in advertising since I was fifteen years old. The Marines helped me be more organized and disciplined, and gave me the ability to prioritize tasks and lead teams, as well as be a team player to make sure what is asked of me is achieved. This is my passion, and live to fulfill it.
