

Clare Mulley

author, biographer at

Cambridge, Essex, GB

Award winning biographer and speaker

Biography

Clare Mulley is the award-winning author of 'The SPy Who Loved' a biography of Christine Granville, Britain's first female special agent of WWII, and 'The Woman Who Saved the Children' a biography of Eglantyne Jebb, the controversial founder of Save the Children', which won the British Daily Mail Biographers' Club prize. Clare is an experienced public speaker, talking at international literary and history festivals, and on BBC Radio 4, BBC Radio 2, and numerous local stations across the UK, Europe and USA.

Availability

Keynote, Moderator, Panelist, Author Appearance

Industry Expertise

Publishing

Sample Talks

Saving the Little Wretches: The Life of Eglantyne Jebb, Founder of Save the Children

Education

University of Sheffield

BA, Social and Political Studies

University of London

MA, Social and cultural history

Accomplishments

Winner of the Daily Mail Biographers' Club prize

Winner of the Daily Mail Biographers' Club prize

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.