After serving a two year mission for his Church, Craig Holmes was asked to work with the youth. He served in the Scouting program and with other youth groups. He taught Sunday school and a youth Seminary class. As he taught he found many were not interested in what the Bible had to say until he started using 'Those Funny Scriptures' to interest them. Craig holds an Associate of Arts degree, has owned a pool business since 1983, and was instrumental in starting a nonprofit organization for emergency communications, in amateur radio, which he chairs. He enjoys volunteering in Church leadership and singing with The Six Basses. His biggest joy is his wife Bonnie who he has been married to for Twenty-eight years.
