Biography

I have attained varied leadership and management experience within the public and private sectors within South Africa and the United Kingdom working with, and influencing various senior executives, leaders and decision-makers. Passionate about corporate governance with a specific focus on IT governance, risk and compliance, and related sub-disciplines like enterprise architecture and information security along with a desire to relentlessly champion best practices within dynamic environments. My goal is to provide leadership in compliance strategy and compliance execution in supporting governance processes, deployment and improvement initiatives along with creating strategy and processes relating to all areas of governance, risk management, information management, and compliance.
