Testimonials

David Meggs

I have referred many clients to Darryl Simms over the last 12 years and Darryl has always treated those clients exceptionally well and given them excellent service. Darryl is a thoroughly reliable person and I commend Darryl to you for at least a discussion to see how he might be able to help you.

Dionn Guglielmi

Darryl holds a wealth of property investing knowledge and really guides you through the process and helps determine what your aims and objectives are with investing to help you get in front of the right property. I have personally used Darryl numerous times and have certainly referred many of my clients to Darryl as well and have full confidence in his abilities. I highly recommend Darryl for his services, whether you are a first home buyer, first time property investor or a second time investor. He is a really valuable resource to have and whatever your circumstances might be, Darryl is certainly the person to talk to.
