

David Christensen

Professor of Accounting at Southern Utah University

Cedar City, UT, US

Specializing in earned value project management, the history of accounting principles, and the profitability analysis of accounting

Biography

Dr. David Christensen is a professor of accounting at Southern Utah University. He has published over 70 refereed journal articles and made numerous presentations at academic and professional conferences. Dr. Christensen served as a cost analyst for the United States Air Force at the Air Force Institute of Technology in Ohio. After retiring as a major, he began his second career at SUU as a professor of accounting in 1998. Dr. Christensen earned a bachelor of science in biology from the University of Utah, a master of accounting from Utah State University, and a Ph.D. in business administration from the University of Nebraska.

Industry Expertise

Accounting, Education/Learning, Writing and Editing, Management Consulting

Areas of Expertise

Cost & Management Accounting, Accounting, Accounting Ethics, Accounting; Ethics Scandals and Moral Exemplars, Accounting; Profitability Analysis, Accounting; Theory of Constraints, Cost Accounting, Cost Analysis, Earned Value Project Management, History of Accounting Principles, Managerial Accounting, Theories and Methods of Accounting, Cost Estimation

Affiliations

Institute of Management Accounting, Certified Management Accountant

Education

University of Nebraska

Ph.D. Business Administration (Accounting)

Utah State University

M.A. Accounting

University of Utah

B.S. Biology

Accomplishments

Best Session Paper

International Business and Economics Research Conference, 2009

Certificate of Merit

Institute of Management Accounting, 2009

Exemplary Use of Technology Faculty Award

Utah System of Higher Education, 2007

Driessnach Award for Distinguished Service

Project Management Institute, 2004

Outstanding Scholar

Southern Utah University, 2003

Certified Management Accountant

CMA, current

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.