Biography

I was born in 1963. I'm a father of two, stepfather of two and grandfather of three. My wife, Terri and I have been married since 2007. We live in beautiful San Diego, California. I create and deliver marketing and educational content for clients, executives and employees. My areas of expertise are multimedia production, content creation, instructional design and professional speaking. I have a passion for new media and the Social Web. I'm also a songwriter and performer with more than 18 covers that are staples in the live repertoire of a handful of contemporary artists.
