The Power of Purpose

Develop a leadership team that inspires their direct reports, you must be a catalyst for change. With practical instruction and engaging group work, Devin shows you how to inspire a culture of leadership. You can be the change you wish to see in the world.

YOUR ATTITUDE DETERMINES YOUR ALTITUDE

Is yours contagious? There are so few things one can control in the world, and attitude is one of them. Devin explains how to stay focused and upbeat, even in challenging environments, to achieve goals more effectively.

Let's Talk Diversity

In today's multicultural environment, it is still not uncommon for workplaces to be divided down racial or cultural lines. Devin addresses the topics of racism (direct or indirect) and intolerance head on, helping leadership teams break down barriers to productivity and achieve greater success as a result of increased understanding. The training we provide works towards breaking down barriers and making communication easier through greater self awareness and understanding of cultural issues that

Cross-Cultural Communication

Build better working relationships with your employees and clients by de-mystifying cultural stereotypes. Learn how to avoid miscommunication or even offending colleagues and customers that may result in costly litigation. Family values, cultural traditions and perceptions will all be addressed to educate participants on minority populations of our society. This workshop will focus on African-American and Hispanic cultures and helps improve communication with these growing markets.
