

Dr Daniel Fitzpatrick

Lecturer, Politics and International Relations at Aston University

Birmingham, , GB

Dr Fitzpatrick's research explores theories of the state, nationalism and identity, and higher education policy and reform.

Biography

Dr Daniel Fitzpatrick joined the department as a Lecturer in Politics and International Relations in September 2016. Before coming to Aston he was a Lecturer and Research Fellow in Politics at the University of Manchester. He has also held research positions at the University of Sheffield and has been a Visiting Fellow at Boston University. Danny's research explores theories of the state, nationalism and identity, the politics of sport, representation and governance, and higher education policy and reform. His book on The Politics of UK Regulation: Between Tradition, Contingency and Crisis was published by Palgrave in 2016.

Areas of Expertise

Political Party Systems, Politics of Sport and Football, Public Policy, British Politics, Regulation, UK Elections, Political Parties

Affiliations

Football Collective : Co-Founder, Political Studies Association Sport and Politics specialist group : Co-Convenor

Education

University of Liverpool

BA Politics

University of Sheffield

MA Research Methods in Politics and International Relations

University of Sheffield

PhD Politics

Sheffield Hallam University

PGCE Citizenship and Social Science

Aston University

PG Certificate Higher Education

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.