

Dr. Lauren Beaupre

Professor in Physical Therapy at University of Alberta

Edmonton, AB, CA

Professor in Physical Therapy with an adjunct appointment in the Division of Orthopaedic Surgery at the University of Alberta

Biography

Dr Beaupre is a Professor in Physical Therapy with an adjunct appointment in the Division of Orthopaedic Surgery at the University of Alberta in Edmonton, Canada. Her primary area of research evaluates methods of improving the care and recovery of frail seniors who have experienced a hip fracture, including those who reside in nursing homes or have cognitive impairment. She is the Hip Fracture Director for Bone and Joint Canada, a Knowledge to Action organization that promotes dissemination of best practices across the country to clinicians, decision- and policy-makers.

Industry Expertise

Research, Education/Learning, Health and Wellness, Writing and Editing, Health Care - Providers

Areas of Expertise

Population Health, Frailty, Cognitive Impairment, Re-enablement

Affiliations

Bone and Joint Canada : Hip Fracture Director

Event Appearances

National Quality Indicators To Improve The Care Of Patients With Hip Fracture: The Next Phase Of Collaborative Work

Canadian Hip Fracture Management Conference

Education

University of Alberta

PhD Public Health Sciences

University of Alberta

MS Physical Therapy

Accomplishments

Institute for Musculoskeletal Health and Arthritis Knowledge Translation Prize (2013)

Dr Lauren Beaupre was honoured with the Institute for Musculoskeletal Health and Arthritis Knowledge Translation Prize in 2013.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.