

Dr Rachel Shaw

Reader, School of Psychology at Aston University

Birmingham, , GB

Dr Shaw studies the synthesis of diverse evidence and the use of different ways of knowing in healthcare practice.

---

Biography

Dr Shaw's research interests include: Health and illness experience: familial experience of living with long-term health conditions, navigating the healthcare services, developing relationships with healthcare professionals, shared decision-making Well-being in professional practice: maintaining well-being among healthcare professionals, theoretically informed methods for preparing healthcare professionals for working in high pressure environments, the meanings of care and delivering lifeworld-led care Knowledge in evidence-based healthcare: synthesis of diverse evidence, use of different ways of knowing in healthcare practice

---

Areas of Expertise

Qualitative Research, Health Psychology, Methodology, Dementia, Body Dysmorphia

---

Affiliations

Chartered Psychologist with the British Psychological Society (BPS), Health Psychologist registered with the Health & Care Professions Council

---

Education

De Montfort University

PhD Psychology

Open University

Diploma Psychology

De Montfort University

BSc Psychology

---

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.