

Dr. Shariq Khoja

Founder & CEO at Tech4Life Enterprises

Oakville, ON, CA

An innovator, researcher, and planner in global health for over 15 years.

Dr Shariq Khoja is a seasoned researcher and high profile leader in the area of eHealth and eLearning. Dr. Khoja has worked as Advisor on Evidence, Capacity and Policy for mHealth Alliance at the United Nations Foundation. He was the founding Director for the Aga Khan Development Network (AKDN) eHealth Resource Centre, and a faculty member at the Aga Khan University in Nairobi, Kenya and Karachi, Pakistan. He has an extensive background and interest in using eHealth to facilitate health care services and education. He has experience of over 15 years leading Health systems initiatives in developing countries. Dr. Khoja currently leads eHealth initiatives in about 10 countries of South and Central Asia and East Africa. His research interests focus on creating evidence and policies to guide the implementation of eHealth in developing countries. Dr. Khoja currently holds Grand Challenges grant in Mental Health and Rising Star in Global Health. Dr. Khoja has successfully raised over six million dollars in research funding from International donors.

Program Development, Public Policy, Information Technology and Services, Health and Wellness, Research

Capacity Building, Healthcare Management, Qualitative Research, Medical Education, Telehealth, Global Health, Public Health, Ehealth, Epidemiology, Program Evaluation, Clinical Research, Informatics, Reproductive Health

COMSATS Institute of Information Technology : Associate Professor

Speaker

2012 eHealth Conference

University of Calgary

Ph.D. Health Research

Aga Khan University

MBBS Medicine

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.