

Dulce Dorado

Director of the International Students and Programs Office at UC San Diego

La Jolla, CA, US

Dulce Amor L. Dorado is the Director of the International Students and Programs Office at the University of California San Diego.

Biography

Dulce Amor L. Dorado is the Director of the International Students and Programs Office at the University of California San Diego. Her 20+ year career in international education has included a variety of responsibilities such as leading a comprehensive international student service office at a large, public institution; advising international students in English language programs; advising study abroad students pursuing year-long, semester, or faculty-led programs; teaching English at a public high school through the Japanese Exchange & Teaching (JET) Program; coordinating institutional partnership development and relations, and developing innovative programs to retain and engage international students in campus life. Dulce has also presented at numerous NAFSA: Association of International Educators national and regional conferences on issues of recruitment, engagement, academic performance, immigration and regulatory compliance, cultural integration, data analysis, and retention of international students.

Areas of Expertise

International Student Services, Immigration Policy, International Education

Affiliations

NAFSA: Association of International Educators : Management Trainer, Global Alliance for International Student Advancement (GAISA) : Advisory Council Member

Education

University of California San Diego

BA Political Science

California State University San Marcos

MBA Business Administration

Accomplishments

2019 Inclusive Excellence Award

UC San Diego

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.