

George Easton

Associate Professor of Information Systems & Operations Management at Emory University, Goizueta Business School

Atlanta, GA, US

Biography

Professor Easton was formerly Associate Professor, Department of MS/CIS, Faculty of Management, Rutgers University, and Associate Professor of Statistics and Quality Management, Graduate School of Business, University of Chicago before joining the Goizueta Business School Faculty in 1996. His research interests include quality management and statistical methodology. He is also Editor of the Quality Management Journal published by the American Society for Quality Control. Professor Easton has worked extensively with industry in both quality management and statistics. He served as an Examiner for the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award in 1989 and 1990 and a Senior Examiner in 1991 and 1992.

Industry Expertise

Research, Education/Learning, Program Development

Areas of Expertise

The Impact of Quality Management on Corporate Performance, The Development of Quality Management Systems, Strategic and Business Planning, Robust Estimation, Graphical Methods for High Dimensional Exploratory Data Analysis

Education

Princeton University

PhD Statistics

Princeton University

Master's Statistics

University of North Carolina

Master's Operations Research and Systems Analysis

Duke University

Bachelor's Mathematics and Zoology

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.