

Elizabeth (Libby) Sharrow

Associate Professor of History and Public Policy and Director of Faculty Research, Institute for Social Science Research at University of Massachusetts Amherst

Amherst, MA, US

Libby Sharrow examines the ways public policy has shaped understandings of gender, race, sexuality, disability and class in U.S. politics.

Biography

Libby Sharrow has brought questions of how public policy has shaped understandings of gender, race, sexuality, disability and class to national media, including the Washington Post, the Boston Globe and New York Times. With particular interest in the history of Title IX, Sharrow's book "Equality Unfulfilled: How Title IX's Policy Design Undermines Change to College Sports" examines how, 50 years after its passage, sex-based inequalities in college athletics remain the reality.

Expertise

History of Title IX, Politics of Sport, Transgender Athletes, Politics of Sex and Gender, Public Policy and Disability, Title IX and Sports, Title IX

Education

University of Minnesota

Ph.D. Political Science

University of Minnesota

M.A. Political Science

University of Minnesota

M.P.P. Gender, Law and Sport Policy

University of Minnesota

B.A. Political Science

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.