

Erin Devlin

Associate Professor of History and American Studies at University of Mary Washington

Fredericksburg, VA, US

Dr. Devlin focuses on race, public memory, and social justice

Biography

Erin Krutko Devlin's research focuses on race, public memory, and social justice, and she offers courses in both history and American studies. Her book "Remember Little Rock" was published by the University of Massachusetts Press as part of its Public History in Historical Perspective series in 2017. She is currently working on a historic resource study with the National Park Service focused on segregation and African-American visitation in Virginia's national parks.

Areas of Expertise

American Studies, Social Justice, Race, Public Memory, American History

Education

College of William and Mary

Ph.D. American Studies

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.