

Ernesto Colín

Associate Professor at Loyola Marymount University

Los Angeles, CA, US

Department of Teaching and Learning

Biography

Ernesto Colín is an Assistant Professor in the Specialized Program in Urban Education at Loyola Marymount University. He received his Ph.D. from Stanford University in the Anthropology of Education. He has also studied at Loyola Marymount University.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning, Research, Training and Development

Areas of Expertise

Qualitative Research, Instructional Technology, Indigenous Education, Anthropology of Education, Cultural Anthropology, Chicana/O Studies, Chicana/O Studies, Mesoamerican Studies, Ethnography, Aztec Dance, Spanish Translation, Sustainable Agriculture

Affiliations

National Association for Chicana / Chicano Studies : Chair, Indigenous Peoples and Knowledges Caucus, Association of Mexican American Educators Journal : Article Reviewer, American Anthropological Association, Council on Anthropology and Education : Co-Chair, Committee 1: Committee on Schools, Culture and Anthropology

Education

Stanford University, School of Education

Ph.D. Anthropology of Education

Loyola Marymount University, School of Education

M.Ed. Secondary Education

Loyola Marymount University

B.A. Spanish and Chicana / Chicano Studies

Accomplishments

Graduate Student Academic Recognition

Awarded by El Centro Chicano at Stanford University in 2005 and 2006.

Kenneth J. Moffett Outstanding Bilingual Education Student Award

Awarded by Loyola Marymount University.

Valedictorian

Awarded by Loyola Marymount University.

Ignatian Award

The highest university honour for a male student, awarded by Loyola Marymount University.

Presidential Citation for Academic Excellence

Awarded by Loyola Marymount University.

Scholar of the Year

Awarded by the Department of Chicana / Chicano Studies at Loyola Marymount University.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.