Faith McKinney, "Schmingling-The Art of Being Well Connected"

Biography

Speaker Faith McKinney is the author of the upcoming book "Schmingling- The Art of Being Well Connected" and is leader and founding member of Successful Thinkers of Indianapolis, Indianapolis' premier free monthly networking organization which focuses on start-up entrepreneurs, college students and established non-profits. Faith is the on-air personality for the online magazine ICIndymag.com where she conducts local and national celebrity interviews. She's conducted over 100 interviews with such notables as: legendary journalists Dan Rather and CNN's Soledad O'Brien, Jazz legends George Benson, Freda Payne, musical genius Kirk Franklin and many many more! Faith serves as a speaker for the National Kidney Foundation of Indiana where she shares her experience as a Kidney Donor and the importance of organ donation. Faith's high energy presentations and relaxed style reveal her authentic personality as well as her passion for Schmingling! Her topic, Schmingling- The Art of Being Well Connected, is a practical guide to taking your career from the Janitor's closet to the Corner Office. You'll discover how to: - Gain the confidence you need to connect with industry leaders - Establish yourself as an expert in your industry (Guerrilla style) - Get the support you need to
