

Fernando Estrada

Associate Professor at Loyola Marymount University

Los Angeles, CA, US

Department of Specialized Programs in Professional Psychology

Biography

Fernando Estrada, Ph.D., contributes actively to the scholarship of college teaching and the personal and academic excellence of under served-under represented minorities. Dr. Estrada is an expert in the areas of masculinity and gender within counseling and educational settings, and specifically with Latino populations. His work has been published in peer-review outlets like Hispanic Higher Education and the Journal of Counseling Psychology. He received a bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of California at San Diego, two master's degrees in counseling psychology from Teachers College at Columbia University, and a doctoral (Ph.D.) degree in counseling psychology from Arizona State University.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning

Areas of Expertise

Psychology, Counseling, Mental Health, Higher Education

Education

Arizona State University

Ph.D. Counseling Psychology

Teachers College at Columbia University

M.A. and Ed.M. Counseling Psychology

University of California, San Diego

B.A. Psychology

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.