

Garrett Strosser

Department Chair and Associate Professor of Psychology at Southern Utah University

Cedar City, UT, US

Specializing in empirical social psychology research on topics such as morality, political psychology, and cultural psychology.

Biography

Dr. Garrett Strosser is an associate professor of psychology and chair of the Psychology Department at Southern Utah University. He focuses on researching social norms, bicultural identity, morality and values, attitudes toward stigmatized groups, and political psychology. Before teaching at SUU, he was a graduate instructor at New Mexico State University. Dr. Strosser has been published several times and presented numerous different research studies with student collaborators at various meetings, festivals, and conferences all over the United States. Dr. Strosser earned his bachelor's degree at Angelo State University, a master's of education in community agency counseling at Auburn University, a master's degree in experimental psychology and a Ph.D. in social psychology with a minor in experimental statistics at New Mexico State University. garrettstrosser@suu.edu

Industry Expertise

Research, Education/Learning

Areas of Expertise

Morality and Values, Stigma Against Mentally Ill, Statistics in Psychology, Social Norms, Political Psychology, Moral Judgements in Relationships, Morality and Religion, Ignorance Towards Atheists, Forensic Psychology, Ethics, Dark Triad Traits, Culture and Cognition, Cognitive Psychology, Bicultural Identity

Affiliations

The Journal of Social Psychology : consulting editor., Society for Personality & Social Psychology : member., International Association of Cross-Cultural Psychology : member., Society for the Teaching of Psychology : member.

Event Appearances

The influence of positive conservative and liberal messages on attitudes towards same-sex marriage
AGM of the Rocky Mountain Psychological Association

Softening the stigma: Using service learning to shift explicit and implicit attitudes toward people with mental illness

AGM of the Rocky Mountain Psychological Association

The influence of conservative and liberal messages on attitudes towards same-sex marriage
San Diego, CA

Education

Angelo State University
B.A. Psychology

Auburn University
M.Ed. Community Agency Counseling

New Mexico State University
M.A. Experimental Psychology

New Mexico State University
Ph.D. Social Psychology / Minor?Experimental Statistics

Accomplishments

Southern Utah University Influencer Award
2017

Institutional Review Board Chair

The Board Chair is responsible for reviewing all "human participants research" that occurs with an SUU-affiliated individual for ethical concerns.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.