

Genia Young

Clinical Asst. Professor and Program Director at Loyola Marymount University

Los Angeles, CA, US

Clinical Asst. Professor/Program Director, Marital and Family Therapy/Art Therapy

Biography

Genia Young is a Board Certified Art Therapist and a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. She is also an Art Therapy Credentialed Supervisor. She holds Master's degrees in Marital and Family Therapy Specializing in Art Therapy from Loyola Marymount University and in Developmental and Educational Psychology from Boston College. Genia has been an art therapy supervisor for first and second year graduate students and a member of the department's Active Explorations Committee. She also provides clinical art therapy services and art therapy supervision in both her private practice and through the Helen B. Landgarten Clinic at LMU. In addition to her private practice, she facilitates art therapy groups for an intensive outpatient program. She previously worked with children and families impacted by trauma as a counselor and clinical supervisor for Cedars-Sinai's schooled-based program. Genia currently sits on the Board of Directors for the Southern California Art Therapy Association (2018-2021). She is currently Program Director for the Department.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.