Testimonials

Peter Craig C.A.

In the presentation that I attended, George provided me with many practical techniques and ideas designed to enhance ClaimSecure's marketing programs: to build our strategies and to ensure that we stand out from our competition. I was so impressed by the effectiveness of George's presentation and the real value of his ideas and concepts that I hired him to host a full day training session in the areas of Power Marketing and Presentation skills for ClaimSecures's management, operations, sales and client service staff. The feedback from our staff members who attended this training session was overwhelmingly positive.

Bruce Girard

I would like to thank you for an excellent presentation. Many of your ideas are very meaningful and truly insightful. What is of great interest is the implementation of these concepts and the depth that many of these concepts are ingrained in our company. This material is not only refreshing but is testimonial and reinforcing that we are on the right track. Kudos to a book well written, succinct and rich in context. It was truly enjoyable to read. There is a lot of knowledge condensed in these pages. There are many insights as well into areas in which our company could improve... this is exciting material! Keep up the excellent work!
