

Gregory Valcante

Director/Research Assistant Professor at University of Florida

Gainesville, FL, US

Greg Valcante is dedicated to serving individuals with autism and related disabilities, along with their families.

Biography

Greg Valcante is the director of the Center for Autism and Related Disabilities and a research assistant professor at the University of Florida. He has served in this position since the CARD Centers were developed in 1994. He is dedicated to the growth and development of the CARD Centers and their mission of service to individuals with autism and related disabilities, along with their families. Greg has worked as a teacher, administrator and researcher in the field of autism for over 40 years. He has authored a number of research publications and presented both nationally and internationally.

Areas of Expertise

Autism

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.