Two Films From Villanova University Students Selected As 2015 Student Academy Award Finalists
Lightning struck twice for students at Villanova University who can now add Academy Award finalist to their resumes. The Academy recently named not one, but two films from Villanova students as finalists for the Student Academy Awards. "Out of 16,000 films that were submitted," said Hezekiah Lewis, an assistant professor at Villanova University, "I would have never in my wildest dreams believe that that would come out of Villanova University."
