Instructor of Modern Languages and Literature - Japanese at Loyola Marymount University

Los Angeles, CA, US

Bellarmino College of Liberal Arts

Biography

Japanese Literature, emphasizing Enchi Fumiko's literary works, Japanese Language Instruction. Since 1983 Hiromi Kinjo has taught various classes, from beginning to advanced, and conversational to business Japanese. Aside from teaching at LMU and LMU Extension, she prior taught at Santa Monica College and UCLA Extension. In 2011, Hiromi Kinjo received the UCLA Extension Distinguished Instructors Award. Prof. Kinjo believes that learning a target language is ultimately a tool to develop more effective and smooth relationships with people from different countries. Her teaching style originates from her firm belief that it is not that without instructors, students can't learn, but without students, instructors can't teach.
