

Ian Philp

Director, Clean Energy Institute at MaRS
Cleantech

Toronto, ON, CA

Energy innovation leader; international lawyer & MBA

Ian Philp is the Director of the Energy Institute, a new Canadian public-private partnership that aims connect high potential energy technologies with international market opportunities and to establish a flagship position in the global clean energy economy. Previously, Ian worked with a boutique investment bank focussed on energy efficiency investments, and as an international trade lawyer defending Canada's renewable FIT program. Ian was also a UN legal and constitutional advisor to the Iraqi Government from 2005-2007. He is currently an Atlantic Council Emerging Leaders in Environment & Energy Policy (ELEEP) Fellow, and was a 2011- 2012 Action Canada Fellow. Ian holds a bachelor's degree in international relations & economics, two law degrees (common and civil law), and a MBA focused on energy finance.

Keynote, Moderator, Panelist, Workshop, Host/MC, Corporate Training

Energy, Government Administration, Legal Services, International Trade and Development, Renewables and Environmental, Public Policy

Energy Security, International Development, International Trade Litigation, Climate Change and the Economy, Clean Energy, Technology Innovation

Cleantech Investor, Action Canada, Advanced Energy Economy (AEE), HEC Montreal, MaRS Discovery District, McGill Alumni , McMaster University Alumni

McMaster University

B. Arts. Sc. Arts & Science

McGill University

LL.B & B.C.L. Common Law & Civil Law

Université de Montréal - HEC Montréal

MBA Masters of Business Administration

Ecole de Management de Lyon

MBA Business Administration

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.