Notebuying & Creative Finance

Jack Sternberg is the Publisher of The NoteWorthy Newsletter and host of the NoteWorthy Annual National Industry Convention. Jack is one of the most experienced real estate and note investors in the country. As the "gurus" guru, he is well known by the professional real estate community as "Obi-Wan Kenobi". Having been an investor since the 1970's, Jack has bought and sold and financed in excess of 1,500 single family homes and over 4,000 apartment units and participated in more than 90 million dollars of both institutional and private financing. Additionally, he has owned almost a million square feet of commercial space, both retail and office, and light industrial property. He has built new homes, remodeled existing ones, bought, created, packaged and sold mortgage notes and operated a full service property management company as well as both a mortgage corporation and title company. He is an expert in finance and real estate. With over 37 years of full time investing experience, Jack has a depth of experience few can match.
