

Jacqueline Dewar

Emerita Professor of Mathematics at Loyola Marymount University

Los Angeles, CA, US

Seaver College of Science and Engineering

Biography

Email: jdewar@lmu.edu Dr. Dewar received her Ph.D. from the University of Southern California in, and her B. S. from St. Louis University. She joined the LMU faculty in 1973 and retired in 2013. She served as department chair in 1983 - 86 and 2005 - 06 and directed faculty development initiatives at LMU from 2006 - 11. A 2003 - 04 Carnegie scholar, she received a national teaching award from the Mathematical Association of America in 2006. Post-retirement she continues to pursue her interests in faculty development, scholarship of teaching and learning, K - 12 math/science teacher preparation, and gender equity in mathematics education by publishing books and articles and presenting workshops at regional and national meetings.

Areas of Expertise

Scholarship of Teaching and Learning, Gender Equity in Mathematics, Mathematics Education, University Faculty Professional Development

Education

University of Southern California

Ph.D. Mathematics

University of Southern California

M.A. Mathematics

Saint Louis University

B.S. Major: Mathematics Minors: Physics and Philosophy

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.