

James Walter

Professor Emeritus of Bioethics at Loyola Marymount University

Los Angeles, CA, US

James J. Walter is the Austin & Ann O'Malley Professor of Bioethics and chair of the Bioethics Institute of Loyola Marymount University.

Biography

James J. Walter holds the Austin & Ann O'Malley Chair in Bioethics at Loyola Marymount University. After completing his undergraduate degree in Philosophy, Dr. Walter earned five advanced degrees, including a Ph.D. in ethics, from the Catholic University of Leuven in Belgium. Professor Walter completed a Post-Doctoral Fellowship in Clinical Bioethics from the Department of Medicine at Stritch School of Medicine at Loyola University of Chicago, and he has had extensive experience as a bioethics consultant to many hospitals. Currently, he serves as a bioethics consultant to the three medical centers and hospice facility belonging to the Citrus Valley Health Partners in Covina, CA.

Industry Expertise

Religious Institutions, Education/Learning, Writing and Editing

Affiliations

Louvain Theological and Pastoral Monographs : International Advisory Board Member

Event Appearances

The Affordable Care Act: The Ongoing Debate in the United States About "Obamacare"
Justice and Priority Setting in Health Care

Education

Catholic University of Leuven
PhD Ethics

Stritch School of Medicine at Loyola University of Chicago
Post-Doctoral Fellowship Clinical Bioethics

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.