

Jamie Darin Prenkert

Professor of Business Law at Indiana University, Kelley School of Business

Bloomington, IN, US

Jamie Prenkert's research focuses on employment discrimination and whistleblowing, as well as business and human rights.

Biography

Jamie Darin Prenkert is an Arthur M. Weimer Faculty Fellow and Professor of Business Law. His research focuses on employment discrimination and whistleblowing, as well as business and human rights. Professor Prenkert's research has appeared in the North Carolina Law Review, the American Business Law Journal, and the Berkeley Journal of Employment and Labor Law, among others. He is co-editing "Law, Business, and Human Rights: Bridging the Gap," a volume for Elgar Press due out in early 2014. He was the Editor in Chief of the American Business Law Journal for volume 49 in 2012. Professor Prenkert has extensive experience facilitating short-term study abroad experiences with undergraduate students to India and Ghana. He will lead one of the inaugural Global Foundations Core-Global Immersion courses to Johannesburg, South Africa in May 2014, where he and his students will study the responsibilities and impacts of business on human rights in the South African extractive, pharmaceutical, and finance industries. Professor Prenkert earned a J.D., magna cum laude, from Harvard Law School and a B.A., summa cum laude with honors in Political Science, from Anderson University. Prior to joining the Kelley School faculty, Professor Prenkert was a senior trial attorney for the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. He also practiced with the law firm of Baker & Daniels.

Industry Expertise

Education/Learning, Legal Services, Research

Areas of Expertise

Employment Discrimination Law, Workplace Bullying and Emotional Abuse, Retaliation Issues

Secondary Titles

Associate Dean of Academics, Charles M. Hewitt Professor

Event Appearances

Conflict Minerals and Polycentric Governance of Business and Human Rights

Academy of Legal Studies in Business Annual Conference

Occam's Razor in Employment Discrimination Law

Academy of Legal Studies in Business Annual Conference

Retaliatory Disclosure: When Identifying the Complainant Is an Adverse Action
2012 Law & Society Conference

Mixed Motives and the RFOA: A Moderate (and Textually Grounded) Middle Road not Taken
Fourth Annual Colloquium on Current Scholarship in Labor and Employment Law

The Reasonable Factors Other than Age Defense in the Wake of Smith and Meacham
2008 Tri-State Academy of Legal Studies in Business Conference

Education

Harvard University
J.D. Law

Anderson University
B.A. Political Science

Accomplishments

Ralph J. Bunche Award for the Outstanding International Paper
2013 Awarded by the American Political Science Association.

Distinguished Proceedings Award
2013 Academy of Legal Studies in Business.

Best Conference Paper Award
2012 Pacific Southwest Academy of Legal Studies in Business.

Outstanding Research Award
2008 Kelley School of Business, Indiana University.

Harry C. Sauvain Undergraduate Teaching Award
2008 Kelley School of Business, Indiana University.

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.