Testimonials

Greg Williams

Jason gave a challenging yet inspiring presentation that undoubtedly resonated with every father in attendance. He spoke from personal experiences which was evident in his passionate and powerful delivery.

Alfred Ware

Jason Hoover speaks in words reflecting topic clarity with a personal appeal that is fresh and honest. You will find his observations and talks filled with wit, sharp intelligence and humor.

Mathew Rix

I have been learning and watching Jason speak and lead for two years. His approach is very easy to follow and understand. When Jason gives you his tools for success his passion and conviction is very real. In the self improvement game a lot of people have a lot great things to say, but they don't have the success or heart to back it up. This is not the case with Jason Hoover. You will greatly benefit from having Jason Hoover being your success coach, I have!

Brian Paul Rhea

Motivational would be an understatement when describing Jason Hoover and his impact as a speaker and communicator. His fluent delivery and gift of declamatory serve to make him a sought after component for any event. I have had the distinct privilege of sitting under his tutelage and highly recombinced him.

Roger Harris

I've been working with Jason Hoover for two months now, and my professional and personal life have been greatly enriched by the "intentional growth" planning, focusing, and adjusting that we have implemented. I lead a team of scientists that must deliver insight directly to our C-level and our product development leaders, and Jason is allowing me to get my demanding life into balance and on a direct path to greater fulfillment in all the important areas!
