

Jennifer Cobbina

Associate Professor at Michigan State University

East Lansing, MI, US

Expertise is in topics on race, crime, and policing; protest movements; and prisoner reentry

Biography

Jennifer E. Cobbina is an associate professor in the School of Criminal Justice at Michigan State University. Her primary research focuses on the issue of corrections, prisoner reentry and the understanding of recidivism and desistance among recently released offenders. Her second primary research area is centered on examining how race, gender and social context impact victimization risks among minority youth.

Industry Expertise

Human Resources, Research, Judiciary, Women, Corrections

Areas of Expertise

Race, Crime, and Policing, Gender and Crime, Race and Crime, Prisoner Re-entry

Affiliations

American Society of Criminology

Education

University of Missouri

Ph.D. Criminology and Criminal Justice

University of Missouri

M.A. Criminology and Criminal Justice

Indiana University

B.A. Criminal Justice and Sociology

Accomplishments

Becky Tatum Excellence Award.

2016 Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences, Minorities and Women Section

Please click here to view the full profile.

This profile was created by Expertfile.